

Passions, Talents and Needs

Did you know that you are a philanthropist? It's true! We all have 3Ts - time, talent and treasure - that we can use to give back to help people and nonprofits in our communities. Because everyone has 3Ts, anyone can be a philanthropist. Let's learn more about your passions and talents and begin to ideate ways you can connect what you enjoy doing to what you care about to make a difference.

WHAT ARE YOU PASSIONATE ABOUT?

Passions are the things that make your heart sing. Whether it is around animals, music or cooking, identifying your passions helps bring into focus those people, places or things that guide your talents. Identify three areas that you are passionate about and feel speak to your heart

WHAT ARE YOUR TALENTS?

Don't you DARE say you're talentless! We are all uniquely talented with skills that we use every day at work, in school and in our hobbies. Think about the things you enjoy doing and that you feel you are good at. Do you enjoy writing? Do you have mad puzzle skills? List three talents or skills that you enjoy using!

WHAT NEEDS DO YOU SEE IN YOUR COMMUNITY?

Imagine you had a magic wand. With this magic wand, you have the power to change your community by solving three needs or gaps that you see. Is it homelessness? Hunger? Potholes in your street? Think about those things that, if removed, would help make the lives of everyone better. Think about those things that, if changed, would help make the lives of everyone better
